

Who we are

Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Teva) is a leading global pharmaceutical company that delivers high-quality, patient-centric healthcare solutions used by millions of patients everyday. At Teva, we are passionate about improving quality of life and healthcare globally.

Teva in the Baltics:

4 sites in 3 Baltic countries - manufacturing plant and 3 Sales & Marketing sites;
a team of almost 300 dedicated employees;
products delivered to >50 countries (mostly US, EU and Japan);
8 times awarded as the Lithuanian Exporter of the Year by the Lithuanian Confederation of Industrialists.

We enable people to live better, healthier lives!

Our employees are the reason for our sustained success. To maintain our position at the forefront of the pharmaceutical industry, we are looking for people who are hands-on, creative and up for a challenge.

Discover a world of growing opportunities!

If you want to make a real difference in people's lives, Teva is the place for you.

Teva is looking for a

Product Manager Specialty Business Unit (Temporary replacement during maternity leave)

Main responsibilities:

- Manage, coordinate and organize marketing activities in Specialty products market (oncology, women health and neurology)
- Form and maintain successful cooperation with OPLs and Specialists
- Develop and implement marketing plan and budget
- Prepare reimbursement application file and be responsible for all reimbursement process steps
- Be responsible for P&L in assigned area
- Cooperate with patient organisations
- Develop product trainings
- Continually review sales results to identify negative variances and develop action plans to address issues

Requirements:

- Experience in pharmaceutical or biotechnology industry, preferably as a product manager
- University degree, preferably in medicine/ pharmaceuticals
- Specific expertise knowledge in branded products, but not only
- Product reimbursement process leading experience until the actual reimbursement comes into force
- Knowledge of science, clinical practices, market dynamics, competitive products, competitive selling strategies
- Proven command of classic marketing disciplines and techniques
- Understanding of clinical data and ability to analyse and forecast pharmaceutical business in assigned area
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills and teamwork spirit
- Ability to manage complex workload and prioritize activities
- Ability to analyse data from sales reports
- Advanced MS office user
- Fluent in Lithuanian and English

We offer:

- The Company offers a chance to work in a vibrant International environment that encourages out of box thinking and the development of new ways of doing things, whilst promoting professionalism and the chance to continue your professional development

CONTACT US

To apply please e-mail your CV in English language until June15th, 2017 to cv@sicor.lt

www.tevapharm.com